

Ground based radios opposition to XM is based more on their refusal to provide more to the public than they have to. Since they usually own several stations that are similar in structure playing different music in a given town. Your choices for news and information become limited. Please don't take away choice, make them compete, if ground radio did a better job more people would listen.